

Following are some samples of Itinerario's authors and the wide coverage of its subject matter:

Rudolf von Albertini. Colonialism and Underdevelopment: Critical Remarks on the Theory of Dependency. (1980-1)

C.A. Bayly. Creating a Colonial Peasantry in Java and India. (1987-1)

Leonard Blussé. Testament to a Towkay: Jan Con, Batava, and the Dutch China Trade. (1985-2)

Guillermo Céspedes del Castillo. Hispanic American Historical Studies in Spain: Trends and Prospects. (1984-1)

Alastair Hennessy. Colonial wars in Cuba and the Philippines in the Nineteenth Century. (1984-2)

Paul E. Hoffman. The Excavation of Santa Elena, a Spanish town on Parris Island. (1985-1)

J.S. Hogendorn and M. Goldberg. Origins of the Gold Coast Cocoa Industry: Example of a Vent-for Surplus? (1982-2)

Graham W. Irwin. The Expansion of Europe, a View from America. (1983-2)

David S. Landes. The foundations of European Expansion and Dominion: an Equilibrium Model. (1981-1)

D.A. Low. Counterpart Experiences: Indian and Indonesian Nationalisms, 1920s-1950s. (1986-1)

Eugene Lyon and Barbara A. Purdy. Contraband in Spanish Colonial Ships. (1982-2)

Adriaan C. van Oss. The Ecclesiastical Colonization of Central America. (1983-1)

M.N. Pearson. Goa during the First Century of Portuguese Rule. (1984-1)

R.W.H. Reece. A 'Suitable Population': Charles Brooke and Race-Mixing in Sarawak. (1985-1)

Woodruff Smith. The European-Asian Trade of the Seventeenth Century and the Modernization of Commercial Capitalism. (1982-2)

Immanuel Wallerstein. Theories, Research Designs and Empirical Measures. (1980-1)

H. van der Wee. The Global World View of Fernand Braudel. (1981-2)

George D. Winius. The 'Shadow Empire' of Goa in the Bay of Bengal. (1983-2)

